

The Focus Group process was contin

International Education, Advising and Student Success, Student Financial Aid, Residence Life, and Career Development and is led by the Dean of Students, Amy Thomas. Dawn Wallace-Pascoe also attends the meetings. Committee members have been updating their mission statements and writing assessment plans. A Co-Curricular Assessment retreat was held on July 24, 2023. The committee reviewed the Co-Curricular Assessment Handbook that was written pre-pandemic and the Library staff shared an example of their assessment plan. Participants broke into small groups to work together on assessment plans.

Higher Learning Commission: Assurance Argument

We received feedback from HLC that the criteria pertaining to academic assessment practices in our Assurance Argument were met without conditions or concerns. Manuel Martinez, VP Academic Affairs who served as the HLC Liaison for ODU until November 2023, left the university. Shonna Riedlinger, Provost, will serve in this role for the next academic year.
